

National Literacy
Trust

25
Years

Talk To Your Baby 2019

From the national agenda to the front line

Changing life stories
1993—2018

We are delighted to bring Talk To Your Baby 2019 to Manchester.

This year's conference celebrates the arrival of early years as a national priority, looking at the critical window of opportunity for language acquisition from conception to age two .

To show how these crucial changes influence and are influenced by activity on the ground, speakers will present on local activity, latest research and key policy issues.

Confirmed speakers so far:

Professor Ludovica Serratrice and Sharon Freeman, University of Reading | Cerys Griffiths, BBC | Nick Skinner and Jenny Tosh, Enfield Borough Council

Early bird price of £175 until 19 October

21 January, 11 Portland Street, Manchester M1 3HU conferences@literacytrust.org.uk 020 7820 6258